SECTION 01

The intention

Should I take the new role I've been offered?

SECTION 02

The cards drawn

PAST

The Hermit

Solitude, soul-searching, introspection, the inner guide, deliberate withdrawal.

PRESENT

The Lovers

Union, deep choice, alignment of values, partnership, harmony.

FUTURE

The Chariot

Willed forward motion, victory through control, focused drive, conquest.

SECTION 03

Reading the spread together

The arc runs from The Hermit behind you, through The Lovers right now, toward The Chariot ahead. You've done the inner work. The choice in front of you is real and aligned. What's ahead is movement, not deliberation — once you choose, the Chariot is what carries you. Read the three together as a sentence: the middle card is the verb.

How to read each card

Tarot does not predict — it maps. The drawn cards are an outline of the energies present in your question right now. You walk the map.

KAALVEDA

THE MATH OF TIME

These cards are yours to sit with.

Tarot is a mirror, not a forecast. The cards drawn here will not repeat — the deck shuffles fresh for every reading.
